

45
YEARS

AUSTIN DANCERS GAZETTE

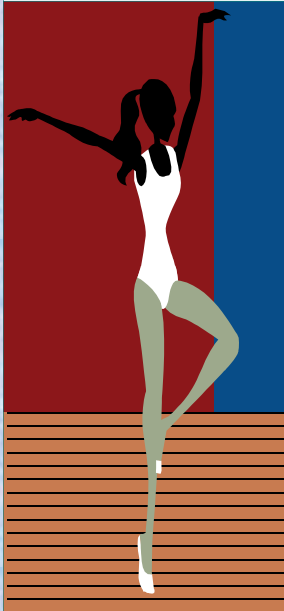

Austin Dancers Academy Newsletter

Volume 2, Issue 2

February 2011

UPCOMING EVENTS

- February 11, 2011
Austin Dancers perform for Wendell P. Williams Elementary School
- February 25, 2011
Austin Dancers perform Cram Middle School
- June 25, 2011
Austin Dancers Academy Live Musical Dance Production at the W. Las Vegas Library Theatre

Austin Dancers in Paris

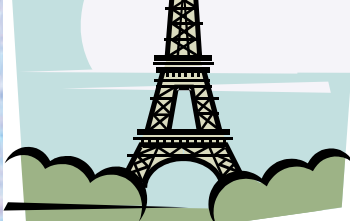

The Austin Dancers have made it to Paris! Paris-Las Vegas, (Hotel & Casino), that is.

The ADA was invited by Shaundell Newsome of Newsome Marketing, a member of the Las Vegas chapter of the 100 Black Men to open their live production showcase, “For the Love of a Child”, held Sunday, January, 30th, 2011.

The event was performed in the beautiful Paris theater that currently stages the Barry Manilow production. The Austin Dancers rehearsed daily leading up to this event and it showed in a flawless presentation.

“For the Love of a Child” showcase was an opportunity for talented high school students performing during this event.

It was hosted by the enthusiastic Steve Schorr, Vice President of Public & Government Affairs for Cox

Communications and Chairman of 100 Black Men Executive Advisory Board. Co-hosted by the incredibly talented singer-songwriter, Clint Holmes.

Also in attendance were local singers, Paris Red and Genevieve as well as the very comical Bubba Knight along with the legendary Little Anthony, all there to give commentary and inspirational words to the young performers.

student to strut their stuff.

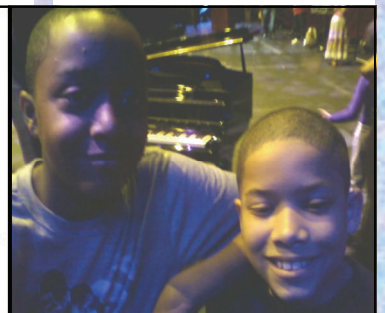

The 100 Black Men awarded the gifted students $2,500.00 scholarships each towards their higher educational pursuits. The performances were wonderful and inspiring as there was a great mix of the actual student recipients and profes-

Paris dressing room awaiting

100 Black Men of Las Vegas

Antwan & Marlon back stage left.